

FEMA to Hold Open House on Revised Flood Insurance Rate Maps for Ontario County, NY

ONTARIO CO, NY — The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is inviting Ontario County, NY residents to an Open House on Flood Risk and Insurance on November 9, 2023. Residents will be able to talk one-on-one with FEMA representatives, to learn more about their flood risk and to get information on potential changes to their flood insurance rates and requirements.

The meeting will not cover FEMA grants or recovery efforts from the recent flooding. The event will be held on:
